ABOUT THE PLACE

Nature's delight of sacred villages to milky water banks, neighbouring by dense forest and trekking paradise lets wander to one of the purest name called 'Parvati Valley'. Known as mini Israel of India, the hamlet of Kullu, Kasol has its own beauty to be called for. Exploring the riverside where we can have a taste of Indian-Israeli cafes, Kasol is worth staying before the trek.

Moving little ahead of Kasol where we trek towards the spiritual site of waterfall named 'Rudranag'. The trek is so beautiful in itself, with the best picturesque view. You shall encounter many waterfalls, however this has a special place in the list as it is a serpent-shaped waterfall which will make you admire it the most. The view of the sunset is an incredible experience. Barshaini is the last motorable point.
